

Due to local and national broadcast media's inability to provide me with programming that suits me,I chose XM satellite radio. Even if you silence satellite radio,I will not return to local or national media.I pay a fee every month to listen to music that is no longer available anywhere else. I have a choice,and if the NAB wants me ever to return,they need to overhaul there entire industry.